Your Day of Healing Prayer – September 15th, is a day for anyone desiring prayer for themselves. Each attendee will be paired with a team of two prayer ministers for the entire day. The team ministers will focus on the needs of the individuals, keeping all matters discussed strictly confidential. For more info, call Barbara Wright (540-297-4849) or Margaret DeWitt (540-721-3652)

Weekday Mass – 11:00 a.m. Thursday.

NOTE: this weekend we are back on our post-summer Mass times: 5:00 p.m. Saturdays, 4:00 p.m. Sundays. We will continue these Mass times until the 2019 Memorial Day weekend.

WELCOME to our New Parishioners:
Andrew and Paris Marotta

Thank you for joining our RCC Faith family!

Our First Fall Pot Luck Supper takes place after this Saturday's Mass (September 8th) in Morrow Hall, following the 5:00 p.m. Mass.

Remembering 9/11: Join in praying the Rosary in Memory of the Victims of that day, in the labyrinth near the grotto on Tuesday, September 11th at 9:00 a.m.

Parish Pastoral Council Meeting Tuesday, September 11th, at 6:30 p.m. in the library. Topics to discuss include: church safety, Mass times, web site, and review of ministries. All parishioners are welcome to attend. Current members include; Father Sal, Deacon Barry, Brandon Alcorn, Nick Burakow, Laura Cox, Jessica DeTournillon, Ed Holzhauer, Roberta Wallace, Preston Thornton, Tony Werner, and Dave Wilmesher. Joe Day also participates in meetings.

Men's Spirituality Group Resuming This is an opportunity to share deep spiritual beliefs, thoughts, feelings and experiences with fellow Christian men. We guys are usually not good at doing this. Here is your chance to practice doing so. We'll meet on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays at 9:15 a.m. in a downstairs classroom. Come share your faith with your fellow travelers! Contact George Moonan at george.moonan@gmail.com or at 540-719-0588.

Free Books The Library will be holding a book giveaway from September 14th to September 20th. Stop by the tables at the back of the Church near the stained glass windows and check out the display.

Help End Poverty in Our Community RCC has a team in the September 15th LCM Walk to End Poverty. We still have room for more people on our team. If you are unable to walk, please make a donation in the Commons following Mass, or online at resurrectionstriders.com. Questions? Call Jessica DeTournillon (537-8254) or Phil Servidea (420-6987).

Welcome Home Catholics Please pray and consider inviting a friend to return to the Church. Our Welcome Home series is a non-threatening way for those who have drifted away to both discuss their personal situations and gain an understanding of current Church teaching. Please call Linda Wilmesher (540-721-1869) or Phil Servidea (540-420-6987) to obtain a printed invitation you can present to a friend. This is a wonderful way for you to help a friend and evangelize for Christ at the same time.

Holy Name of Mary's Tent Revival "Behold, I Make All Things New" will take place on September 28th and 29th. Keynote speaker will be Deacon Larry Oney. Cost is $20 for adults, $10 for students. To register, go to the HNM website.

From the Haiti Committee: We've been Haiti's extended family since 1989, visiting our brothers and sisters annually at Melissa's Hope and The Salesian Orphanage in Haiti. We listen to them and hear, assessing their needs. We share hope, love and friendship for we are one bread, one body in Christ!. Please remember; the Third Sunday collection each month is for our Haiti mission.

NOTE: next Latin Mass at Our Lady of Peace in Appomattox will be 3:00 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 16th.

NOTE: email info for next week's Bulletin to wcurtis@shentel.net by Tuesday, September 11th.
Thank you!
