Men's Spirituality Group Resuming This is an opportunity to share deep spiritual beliefs, thoughts, feelings and experiences with fellow Christian men. We guys are usually not good at doing this. Here is your chance to practice doing so. We'll meet on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays at 9:15 a.m. in a downstairs classroom. Come share your faith with your fellow travelers! Contact George Moonan at george.moonan@gmail.com or at 540-719-0588.

Free Books The Library will be holding a book giveaway until September 20th. Stop by the tables at the back of the Church near the stained glass windows and check out the display.

Communion Pyx Deacon Barry requests that all Eucharistic Ministers return their Communion Pyx to the Sacristy, so he can assure they all have had thorough cleaning. Also, it is important that Pyx are returned ASAP after use, as sometimes a shortage occurs.

From the Haiti Committee: We've been Haiti's extended family since 1989, visiting our brothers and sisters annually at Melissa's Hope and The Salesian Orphanage in Haiti. We listen to them and hear, assessing their needs. We share hope, love and friendship for we are one bread, one body in Christ!. Please remember; the third Sunday collection each month is for our Haiti mission.

Welcome Home Catholics Please pray and consider inviting a friend to return to the Church. Our Welcome Home series is a non-threatening way for those who have drifted away to both discuss their personal situations and gain an understanding of current Church teaching. Please call Linda Wilmesher (540-721-1869) or Phil Servidea (540-420-6987) to obtain a printed invitation you can present to a friend. This is a wonderful way for you to help a friend and evangelize for Christ at the same time.

Holy Name of Mary's Tent Revival "Behold, I Make All Things New" will take place on September 28th and 29th. Keynote speaker will be Deacon Larry Oney. Cost is $20 for adults, $10 for students. To register, go to the HNM website.
