Archbishop Oscar Romero, martyr, to be made saint Oct. 14

God of love, may we and our church become tools in your hands to help prepare the way for your reign in history. Amen.

Resurrection Catholic Church will honor Salvadoran Archbishop Oscar Romero at our masses next weekend, Oct 13 & 14 displaying a large photo and including some Spanish language lyrics in our hymns.

A bishop for the World

“In the name of this suffering people, whose laments rise to heaven each day more tumultuous, I beg you, I beseech you, I order you in the name of God: Stop the repression!” Romero told them, in words transmitted over national radio. The next day, March 24, 1980, Romero celebrated an evening Mass at a hospital chapel. A gunman stepped out, shot him in the chest, got back in his car and sped away.

38 years after his murder for speaking out against military oppression, Archbishop Romero will be made a saint at a Vatican ceremony October 14. The Salvadorans would have preferred for Romero’s canonization to occur in their capital, San Salvador. Yet, Pope Francis, the first pontiff of the Americas, wanted the ceremony in Rome signifying Archbishop Romero as a Bishop for the World.

Please Pray for Jim Gross, Judy Phillip, Phyllis Chauvin, Shannon Daly Cleary, Lee Colls, Randy Woodhall, Bryce Liquerman, Marilyn Mocksfield, Tracy Trinidad, Pamela Paulasia, Patty Meeker, George Perdue, Millie Kurek, Dave Lortscher, Marge Lostoski, Elsie Brown, David Pilcz, Casey Welch, Gene McCullough, Brian and Blake Cochrane, Betty Owen, Kathleen Simmons, J.C. Crowley, Melissa Murtagh, Don Redmond, Curtis Blankenship, William and June Marie Perkowski
