FAITH FORMATION

Vacation Bible School

July 11, 6:00-8:00pm
July 12- July 15, 5:30-7:30pm

YOU can help! During VBS, the children are learning that they are fed by Jesus Christ and that they in turn can feed the hungry! Every child will bring in coins during the week to donate to "Society of St. Andrew" in Big Island.

EVERY parishioner can help too! Society of St. Andrew gleans food that is left in our farmer's fields all across the country, and then gets those nutritious fruits and vegetables to food pantries and food banks.

Please see the "Abundance Orchard" apple tree in the RCC commons and take an envelope with a dollar amount on it that you would like to donate to the "Society of St. Andrews". Return the envelope with your donation inside. All donations will go directly to "Society of St. Andrews".

Please help us provide snacks for our youth! Pick up a slip this weekend at Church showing food items needed or consider making a monetary donation. Thank you! If you have questions, contact Melissa.

Another Successful Holy Strokes Charity Golf Tournament!

Our 32nd annual Holy Strokes Golf Tournament was held on June 21st at Copper Cove Golf Course. A total of 17 teams enjoyed the scramble format. The First Flight winning team with a gross score of 54 (-18) consisted of Pat Parcells, Gerry Lewis, and Sam Hodges. The Second Flight winning team with a gross score of 66 (-6) consisted of Phil Servidea, Ed McNamara, Pete Phillip, and Greg Farmer. Father Sal's team, which included Deacon Barry, Melissa Murtagh, and Jessica DeTournillon, was the "Most Honest Team" with a gross score of 76 (+4).

Many thanks to all the volunteers who helped make Holy Strokes a fun-filled day. All net proceeds ($5000+) will go to our St. Vincent dePaul and other local charities supported through Resurrection's outreach efforts. Please support the sponsors listed in the insert.
