HELP NEEDED!

Did you know that the Sunday Mass is Livestreamed on Facebook EVERY Sunday? This is an important ministry for our parishioners who are homebound for short or long periods of time so they know that they are loved and prayed for.

Would you consider being a part of this ministry? No experience necessary! We will train you on how to set up the equipment and monitor the livestream. Come try it out! It's easier than you think! Please contact Deacon Barry Welch for more details.

Our Music Ministry is still in need of a drummer to play the "Cajon" for our weekend liturgies.

If you are interested in playing some or all of the weekend Masses, please email or talk to Sue Seeman:
sueseeman0@gmail.com

Parish Movie and Potluck!

February 5th, 6:00pm, Morrow Hall - "Pray" the film.

All are invited! Bring some food to share (enough to feed 4-6 people) to our "Movie and Potluck". Meet in Morrow Hall after Saturday evening Mass.

An evening of good food, great friends, and a fantastic movie! "Pray" the film is the inspiring 75-minute documentary of Patrick Peyton, a poor, uneducated Irish immigrant who sets sail for America in 1928 with nothing but his faith and dreams of becoming a millionaire.

View the movie trailer here: <https://www.praythefilm.com/>

YOUTH SERVICE PROJECTS

The Youth Group members are preparing for two service projects, and they ask for your assistance.

The 2nd annual Blessing Bag project: Last year's Blessing Bag project was a huge success! The Youth Group filled and distributed 50 cinch sacks containing toiletries, snacks, drinks, and mittens to people in need in Roanoke, Moneta, and Bedford.

To ensure that the Blessing Bags are filled with consistent items this year, the Youth Group is asking for your monetary donations. The youth will be collecting money January 15-23 after all Masses. They will then shop, bag, and distribute the Blessing Bags with Youth Group Minister, Jessica deTournillon.

This service project was created, organized, and now executed by the teens themselves. Please help support their efforts to be Jesus' hands and feet!

Souper Bowl of Caring

Resurrection parishioners have supported Lake Christian Ministries by donating canned goods every year in the month of February for 18 years!

Let's make this the LARGEST collection of non-perishable food items yet! Bring in your canned food/donation to the "Souper Bowl of Caring" table in the commons from February 5th-13th! LCM greatly appreciates your generosity! Thank you!
