Safety & Security Corner

Safety officers are present at each Mass and are trained to provide security and safety oversight. They ensure all doors are properly secured, and they are in contact with the on-site Bedford County Sheriff's Officer.

In an emergency, safety officers will be easily recognizable by their bright vests. Please follow their instructions and/or alert them of any problems, as necessary.

Additional volunteers are needed for this important ministry. If you are interested in being trained to become a safety officer, contact Tim Kaufman or Ray Traen or speak with a safety officer after Mass. Tim Kaufman 703-581-5100

"The Mother of all Yard Sales" is almost here! It's an experience like no other. If you have not been able to help yet but want to volunteer, please come. There is still much work to do. If you would like to help during the sale days (one or both), please sign up now so we can include you on the assignment schedule.

Anyone who is working a sale day should pick up a copy of the Sale Day Guidelines in the lobby. Your assignment areas will be posted in the kitchen by the microwave, where you will sign in and out and get your name tag.

If you are unable to work but want to provide snacks or water/drinks for the volunteers, please drop items off in the kitchen and mark JJ on it. Thank you!

Job Opening for Music Coordinator - RCC

The Music Coordinator plans and coordinates the parish music program, including scheduling and oversight of music at parish liturgies; leads and/or accompanies music for all weekend liturgies; coordinates and directs the Saturday choir and Sunday ensemble; and provides musical direction and some training.
