Ministry of Caring

How filled with gratitude we are for the 27 new volunteers who signed up to assist the Care Leaders! They will be providing meals or transportation or sitting respite for families from Resurrection or Trinity Ecu-menical parishes when there is a need.

All parishioners should be receiving a call or email from their Care Leader this spring. They will be inquiring if all is well or if there is a need that may be filled by our volunteers. Thank you! JoAnn Ackermann

THANK YOU to all who participated in the feasibility study—either by meeting with the consultant or by completing the survey. We think it is important to offer everyone an opportunity to offer input, and your opinions are valued. The survey responses will be accepted through Friday, June 17.

CHARITY & OUTREACH

Joyous Junque Spring Sale—SUCCESS!

Our first JJ sale of the year was held on June 3rd and 4th. The weather cooperated nicely for the two-day event. Our gross proceeds for the sale were $25,000. As always, the success of the sale is due to the dedication of our volunteers who give their time and talent to our ministry. Because of our volunteers' commitment, our set up, sales, and clean up for this event went extremely smooth.

The majority of the items we had were sold, which made clean up relatively easy. A heart-felt thank you to all who donated items and also food and drinks.

Our second sale will be August 26th and 27th. Proceeds from both sales will be distributed at a later date still to be determined.

Help Make a Difference in a Child's Life

You may sign up for a specific week (just eight hours total for reading buddies) at <https://www.smlgoodneighbors.org/mentor-and-volunteers>. Send questions to Judy Wolfe at (judybassdoc@aol.com).
