A NOTE OF FAREWELL FROM JOE DAY

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 tells us “All things have their season, and in their times all things pass under heaven.”

Roxanne and I have come to realize it’s time for us to start a new chapter in our lives. With encouragement and support from our two sons, we’ve decided to retire from professional life (for the second time) and move closer to our families in New Jersey and Delaware. Our son, Steven, lives in Wilmington, DE. Roxanne’s brother and her twin sister, as well as my two brothers and two sisters, all live nearby.

Our son, Scott, and his family live in San Mateo, CA, but we’re hopeful that we’ll be able to spend more time with them as well. We especially yearn to be with our grandchildren: Olivia, Owen, Will, and Cooper.

Admittedly, we have mixed emotions about leaving SML, RCC, and the many friends we’ve made over the years. This is an incredibly special place which holds such fond memories for us. We have been blessed! I am extremely grateful for the opportunities and experiences that I’ve had in service to the people of Resurrection. I can say unequivocally that this is the best job I’ve ever had, largely because of the precious relationships that I’ve formed along the way. Thank you!

We’ll be around for a little while, at least until the end of the fiscal year in June. I want to make sure we have a smooth transition at church and sufficient time to plan and prepare our personal transition into the future. May the peace of the Lord be with you always!

Joe Day
